The Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for November 2017

Mission: Christians in Asia: The Christians in Asia, bearing witness to the Gospel in word and deed, may promote dialogue, peace, and mutual understanding, especially with those of other religions.

ARCHBISHOP'S MESSAGE

Praying for the Faithful departed

1. The Souls in the Purgatory

There are three status among the members of the church. Some of the members of the Body of Christ are pilgrims on earth; others have died and are being purified; while still others are in glory, seeing God face to face (cf. no. 954, Catechism of Catholic Church). There is a deep communion among the disciples of Christ in these three stages.

We, the pilgrims on earth, are in deep communion with the Saints in Heaven. Every year on 1st November we celebrate the solemnity of all the Saints and we pray to them for their intercession.

We, the pilgrims on earth, are in deep communion with the faithful departed. On 2nd November we keep the memory of all the faithful departed. In purgatory, the souls of the faithful departed, who have died in God's grace, undergo purification so that they could enter heaven.

The best thing we can do for the souls of the faithful departed is to pray for them and above all, to offer Holy Mass for them. Remembering the dead and praying for them is a pious and holy thing. Judas Maccabeus made atonement for the dead that they may be delivered from their sin (2 Macc. 12:45-46). "From the beginning, the Church has honoured the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God" (No. 1032, Catechism of the Catholic Church).

During the month of November let us try to participate in the Holy Mass frequently, receive Holy Communion and offer it for the repose of the souls of the faithful departed. Let us offer our prayers, our sacrifices, our almsgiving to the poor, our works of penance for the souls in the purgatory. On 2nd November let us remember our deceased Archbishops, Priests, Religious and

- May the souls of the faithful departed, by the mercy of God rest in peace.
- Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now at the hour of our death.

LETTER OF THE HOLY FATHER POPE FRANCIS TO THE BISHOPS IN INDIA

Dear Brother Bishops,

1. The remarkable varietas Ecclesiarum, the result of a long historical, cultural, spiritual and disciplinary development, constitutes a treasure of the Church, regina in vestitu deaurato circumdata variegata (cf. Ps 44 and Leo XIII, Orientalium Dignitas), who awaits her groom with the fidelity and patience of the wise virgin, equipped with an abundant supply of oil, so that the light of her lamp may enlighten all peoples in the long night of awaiting the Lord's coming.

This variety of ecclesial life, which shines with great splendour throughout lands and nations, is also found in India. The Catholic Church in India has its origins in the preaching of the Apostle Thomas. It developed through contact with the Churches of Chaldean and Antiochian traditions and, from the sixteenth century onward, through the efforts of Latin missionaries. The history of Christianity in this great country thus led to three distinct sui iuris Churches, corresponding to ecclesial expressions of the same faith celebrated in different rites according to the three liturgical, spiritual, theological and disciplinary traditions. Although this situation has sometimes led to tensions in the course of history, today we can admire a Christian presence that is both rich and beautiful, complex and unique.

2. It is essential for the Catholic Church to reveal her face in all its beauty to the world, in the richness of her various traditions. For this reason the Congregation for the Oriental Churches, which celebrates its centenary year, having been established through the farsightedness of Pope Benedict XV in 1917, has encouraged, where necessary, the restoration of Eastern Catholic traditions, and ensured their protection, as well as respect for the dignity and rights of these ancient Churches.

3. The Second Vatican Council embraced this vision of the Church and reminded the faithful of the need to protect and preserve the treasure of the particular traditions of each Church. "Moreover, within the Church particular Churches hold a rightful place; these Churches retain their own traditions, without in any way opposing the primacy of the Chair of Peter, which presides over the whole assembly of charity (cf. Ignatius of Antioch, Ad Rom., Praef.), and protects legitimate differences, while at the same time assuring that such differences do not hinder unity but rather contribute toward it" (Lumen Gentium, 13).

4. As Lumen Gentium teaches, it is for the Bishop of Rome to promote unity in the diversity of the Body of Christ. In this task, the Roman Pontiffs faithfully interpret and apply the voice of the Second Vatican Council, which expressed the ardent desire that the Oriental Churches, venerated for their antiquity, should "flourish and with new apostolic vigour execute the task entrusted to them" (Orientalium Ecclesiarum, 1). Their responsibility is not only to become ever more effective instruments of that "special duty of promoting the unity of all Christians, especially Eastern Christians" (Orientalium Ecclesiarum, 24), but also to promote their "equal dignity [...] for they enjoy the same rights and are under the same obligations, also in respect of preaching the Gospel to the whole world" (Orientalium Ecclesiarum, 3).

Thirty years ago, my beloved predecessor Saint John Paul II wrote a Letter to the Bishops of India. Drawing on the Second Vatican Council, he sought to apply the conciliar teaching to the Indian context. In India, even after many centuries, Christians are only a small proportion of the population and, consequently, there is a particular need to demonstrate unity and to avoid any semblance of division. Saint John Paul II also stated that the need for unity and the preservation of diversity are not opposed to one another: "This need to be faithful to the traditions and patrimony of one's own rite must not be interpreted as an interference with the Church's task of 'gathering into one the children of God who are scattered abroad' (Jn 11:52) or with the mission of the Church to promote the communion of all people with the Redeemer" (Epistula ad Indiae Episcopos, 28 May 1987).

5. Five decades ago, when the Syro-Malabar Church expanded to some central and northern parts of India with "missionary eparchies", it was generally thought by the Latin Bishops that there should be just one jurisdiction, that is, one bishop in a particular territory. These eparchies, created from Latin dioceses, today have exclusive jurisdiction over those territories, both of the Latin and Syro-Malabar faithful. However, both in the traditional territories of the Eastern Churches, as well as in the vast area of the so-called diaspora (where these faithful have long been established), a fruitful and harmonious cooperation between Catholic bishops of the different sui iuris Churches within the same territory has taken place. This cooperation not only offers an ecclesiological justification for such a solution, but also demonstrates its pastoral benefits. In a world where large numbers of Christians are forced to migrate, overlapping jurisdictions have become customary and are increasingly effective tools for ensuring the pastoral care of the faithful while also ensuring full respect for their ecclesial traditions.

6. In India itself, overlapping jurisdictions should no longer be problematic, for the Church has experienced them for some time, such as in Kerala. Saint John Paul II's Letter authorized the erection of a Syro-Malabar eparchy in the Bombay-Pune region, which became the Eparchy of Kalyan. In 2012 the Syro-Malabar Eparchy of Faridabad was erected in the region of Delhi and its neighbouring states, while the boundaries of the Eparchy of Mandya were extended in 2015 to include the metropolitan area of Bangalore. In the same year, an Eparchy and an Apostolic Exarchate were erected for the Syro-Malankar faithful, so that by these ecclesiastical circumscriptions the Syro-Malankar Church could provide pastoral care for its faithful throughout the territory of India. All these developments show that, albeit not without problems, the presence of a number of bishops in the same area does not compromise the mission of the Church. On the contrary, these steps have given greater impetus to the local Churches for their pastoral and missionary efforts.

7. In 2011 my predecessor Benedict XVI wished to provide for the pastoral needs of the Syro-Malabar faithful throughout India, and I confirmed his intention following the plenary session of the Congregation for the Oriental Churches in 2013. Archbishop Raphael Thattil is currently the Apostolic Visitor for those Syro-Malabar faithful in India who live outside their own territory, and he has provided detailed reports to the Apostolic See. This issue has been examined in meetings at the highest levels of the Church. Following these steps, I believe the time is now right to complete this process.

I have therefore authorized the Congregation for the Oriental Churches to provide for the pastoral care of the Syro-Malabar faithful throughout India by the erection of two Eparchies and by the extension of the boundaries of the two already in existence.

I decree also that the new circumscriptions, as with those already in existence, be entrusted to the pastoral care of the Major Archbishop of Ernakulam-Angamaly and to the Synod of Bishops of the Syro-Malabar Church, according to the norms of the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches.

8. I hope that my decision will be welcomed with a generous and peaceful spirit, although it may be a source of apprehension for some, since many Syro-Malabars, deprived of pastoral care in their own rite, are at present fully involved in the life of the Latin Church. I am convinced, however, that all those involved will understand that there is no need for concern: the Church's life should not be disrupted by such a provision. Indeed it must not be negatively interpreted as imposing upon the faithful a requirement to leave the communities which have welcomed them, sometimes for many generations, and to which they have contributed in various ways. It should rather be seen as an invitation as well as an opportunity for growth in faith and communion with their sui iuris Church, in order to preserve the precious heritage of their rite and to pass it on to future generations. There is already an instruction by the Congregation for the Oriental Churches to the Eparchy of Faridabad, which indicates that a member of the Syro-Malabar faithful, by virtue of the same law, is also a member of the Syro-Malabar parish where he or she is domiciled (Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches, Can, 280 §1); yet at the same time, he or she can remain fully involved in the life and activities of the parish of the Latin Church. No dispensation is required from the law currently in force for the faithful to practice their faith serenely, and they may do this with the pastoral care of either Latin or Syro-Malabar pastors (cf. Prot. No. 197/2014, 28 January 2016).

9. The path of the Catholic Church in India cannot be that of isolation and separation, but rather of respect and cooperation. The presence of several bishops of the various sui iuris Churches in the same territory will surely offer an eloquent witness to a vibrant and marvellous communion. This is the vision of the Second Vatican Council, which I quote once again: "Between all the parts of the Church there remains a bond of close communion whereby they share spiritual riches, apostolic workers and temporal resources. For the members of the people of God are called to share these goods in common, and of each of the Churches the words of the Apostle hold good: 'According to the gift that each has received, administer it to one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God' (1 Pet 4:10)" (Lumen Gentium, 13). It is in this spirit that I urge all the beloved Churches in India to be generous and courageous as they witness to the Gospel in the spirit of fraternity and mutual love. For the Syro-Malabar Church, this continues the valued work of their priests and religious in the Latin context, and sustains their availability for those Syro-Malabar faithful who, although choosing to attend Latin parishes, may request some assistance from their Church of origin. The Latin rite Church can continue to generously offer hospitality to members of the Syro-Malabar communities who do not have church buildings of their own. The cooperation among all the sui iuris Churches should continue, for example in the area of retreats and seminars for clergy, Bible conferences, celebrations of common feast days and ecumenical endeavours. With the growth of spiritual friendship and mutual assistance, any tension or apprehension should be swiftly overcome. May this extension of the pastoral area of the Syro-Malabar Church in no way be perceived as a growth in power and domination, but as a call to deeper communion, which should never be perceived as uniformity. In the words of Saint Augustine, who sang the praises of the Trinity and of the wonderful communion of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, I also ask you: dilatentur spatia caritatis (Sermon 69, PL 5, 440.441). May there be a growth in love, communion and service.

Dear brother Bishops, I commend all of you to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and I assure you of my closeness in prayer. To all of you, the Church and the faithful in India, I impart my Apostolic Blessing, and I ask that you pray for me.

From the Vatican, 9 October 2017

Fr. A.Kulandai Yesu RajaJoseph*Secretary to the Archbishop*Rev. Fr. J.M. Gregory Louis*Procurator*From the Desk of Vicars*Daily I Die

Although the Paschal mystery is our daily experience, month of November invites us to become more aware of the mystery of our life in the light of Our Beloved Master, the Risen Lord. This reflection and awareness will really help all of us to become more and more united with the Risen Lord to overcome the unfounded fear of death in spite of our faith in the Lord. Naked we entered into the world, naked we shall return. Therefore renunciation is the condition and the consequence of a liberated life (JIVAN MUKTHA) to be a witness and a guide to our own selves and others. Through our loving parents and relations let us be united with the Lord and all.

Discern and Decide

Every day each one's life according to the call and commitment is charged with thousand decisions of important and ordinary matters. Let us not presume and assume everything and everybody for granted and continue our life as if everything is OK and alright, we are invited to evaluate daily our life at the close of the day as examination of conscience and continue to journey with the spirit of the Risen Lord. This way of life has to become our way of life to be an exemplary witness and humble servant of God.

Decisions may take place in different ways and faces but what matters is that, whether every decision is the Holy Will of God and the plan of God for his glory and the well being of all. Decisions may emerge from affective maturity critical rationality and spiritual wisdom. We need to be aware and awake as guides for every decision affects everyone of us. Gut-level decisions are affected by fluctuating emotions, ethnicity, caste, relations etc. etc. Most of us are conditioned by this factor and that is why humanity, religion and others are divided even now. Next with rules and regulations, intellectual capacity and ability, our deceptive element the mind takes decisions according to circumstances, situations, persons and other reasonable factors. Follow the letter and the spirit of the civil and ecclesial laws for all; based on justice and values enshrined and accepted by all with moral credibility and courage. The best way of decision is at the spirit level according to the will and plan of God as witnessed by Jesus Christ and our Mother Mary. Better to be a person guided by the spirit of the Risen Lord than any other concern if we are really the brothers and sisters of Jesus, servants of God and temples of the Holy Spirit.

Congrats for the News Letter

Many of us are contributing to the news letter as officials and in charge of commissions. Let us continue that so that news letter becomes a vibrant link among all of us in the Local Church guided and guarded by the Local Bishop. It would be better that all get the news letter as a gift on the first day of every month for which the contributors, the press, the postal department and the editors will have to work our little early than at the last moment. We all know that the post takes more than one week to travel to us. It will be possible to know in advance the programme of our Archbishop also during every month. Still some of us in charge of diocesan affairs could and need to share their concerns and service with all so that there is nothing so secret to create a space for doubts etc.

Let us be happy about the forth coming diocesan synod. Preparation in 2018 and celebration of it in 2019. In December we will have the common clergy recollection on the 14th Thursday in the campus of the Archbishop's House, when we will be introduced to the new missal and the guidelines for the celebrants and the people of God by our beloved Archbishop. We also will have the Senate Meeting in the month of November 25th Saturday in the headquarters around 10.30 A.M. The Vicars Forane's meeting on the 24th of October was really useful and fruitful and the option for the poor by the CBCI and the Local Church was also shared by all and all the priests will get the document in due time to be alert and committed to the cause of the deprived in our Archdiocese with the laity and the religious. Let us thank Fr. Jayanth for communicating the important messages through SMS. Hope that all get the SMS and are informed of useful matters. Let us also appreciate our Fathers who are faithful to celebrate the masses for the intentions of the people and send the surplus to the Procure. May the Spirit of the Risen Lord help us to be positive towards all especially towards our brother priests based, grounded on gospel values.

MISSION SUNDAY

Dear Rev. Fathers,

All the members of the Church are called to Participate in the mission, for the Church is missionary by her very nature. World Missions Day is a privileged moment when the faithful of various continents engage in prayer and concrete gestures of solidarity in support of the young churches in mission lands. Last year we have remitted Rs. 41,63,199/- as our Archdiocesan Mission Sunday collection to the National Office, Pontifical Mission Organization, Bangalore. I sincerely thank and appreciate all the Parish Priests and Heads of the institutions for your very special effort to collect the above amount. The Pontifical Mission Organization expects more than Rs. 50 lakhs from our Archdiocese according to the ratio of Catholic population. Hence, we kindly request you to take all the necessary efforts to mobilize more funds from the faithful.

Our prayers and our donations on world Mission Sunday help the Church in poor countries to reach out to those living in poverty and the vulnerable so that they too can know the love and joy that comes from Jesus. Let us remember that Jesus wants all of us to be missionaries so that his love can reach everyone.

How is our Mission Sunday collection used?

The promotion of the Mission Sunday is entrusted to the Pontifical Mission Societies (PMS) of each diocese. The money collected from different parishes in the diocese on

Mission Sunday is sent by the Diocesan office to the National Office, Pontifical Mission Organization (PMO)

Bangalore. From there, it is then sent to the International office of the society for the propagation of Faith, in Rome. At their annual meeting in Rome, the International Society for the Propagation of Faith decides how the funds collected will be distributed to missionaries worldwide, based on the needs that are prioritized.

Please remit the Mission Sunday collection before the end of November 2017 and enable us to forward the collection to Pontifical Missions Organization in time.

Voice from Metropolitan Matrimonial Tribunal – 85Highlights & Report of the Canon Law Society of India
(16-20, Oct.2017)

On 16-20, October, 2017, out of 134 registered 118 CLSI members from India attended the 31st Annual Conference at PILLAR (Pallotti Institute of Lay Leadership Animation and Research), Pillar Salai, Madurai - 625019, Tamil Nadu. The Conference concentrated on the main theme on the “The Temporal Goods of the Church.” On the first day, at 4.15 pm., in the presence of His Eminence Cardinal Oswald Gracias; Most Rev. Dr. Antony Pappusamy, the Archbishop of Madurai inaugurated the XXXI Annual Conference.

In his inaugural address the Archbishop highlighted the active role of CLSI, its purpose in rejuvenating the minds of its member Canonists in Canon Law every year, with updates and Interpretations. His Grace stressed that the topic on Temporal Goods was rightly chosen for this year. Since, in each diocese, Priests need to handle temporal goods of the church with evangelical charity and not by the spirit of the world. Canonization of Civil Law is the need of the hour. Active participation of the laity in the Parish Pastoral Council and Parish Finance Council demands co-responsibility. The integrity and accountability of the Triangle Viz. the Bishop, the Priests and Religious in a Diocese is scanned from different quarters by the civil Authorities. His Grace reiterated that people do not tolerate any more inappropriate accounting. Therefore, expectation of transparency, accountability and good utility of Temporal Goods in the Catholic Church is the hallmark and credibility in today’s world.

His Eminence Cardinal Oswald Gracias took the whole house to the inception stage of the Canon law Society. His Eminence deems it a privilege and pleasure to be with the Canonists of India almost every year. His Eminence recalled the inception stage of this growing family to the year 1987 when at Chennai with only 25 canonists the first Annual meeting took place. Our Archbishop too was a member in the first Annual meeting. With pride and glamour His Eminence stated that the Society has now more than 300 Canonists. Speaking on the topic chosen, His Eminence quoted Anna Hazare's public view on the Catholic Church stating that: 'the Church is seen as a Public entity with integrity; for it handles its goods with sincerity, altruistic in nature and good accountability'. The Church is a good example to the civil bodies functioning in the country. The Cardinal termed the Canonists as the IAS officers of the Catholic Church, service minded and concern for others.

Out of the several Annual meetings held, this was the only meeting in which His Eminence stayed with us for three days. His Eminence gave the Keynote Address: 'General Principles of Administration of Temporal Goods of the Church' presented with clarity and precision citing many practical examples. Such caliber and thorough knowledge of the subject with vivid interaction on many questions raised during his three talks proves His Eminence to be the right selection of His Holiness our Pope to include Cardinal as one among the nine Advisors.

Rev. Fr. Xavier Arul Raj, Senior Counsel, Madras High Court presented a paper on "Integrating Civil Law & Canon Law with special reference to Church Property in the context of the Mission of the Church in India". His expertise in Civil Law for over 37 years and his research in different aspects of the law see a vacuum in the Catholic Church which yet has to be promulgated as a Personal Law, only the Christian Marriage Act exists. While in the civil structure the binding precedents through the ratio-decidenti is an accepted form of march of law in Indian Jurisprudence. However, he stated that what so ever be the development or amendment of law; certain fundamental concepts in the Indian Constitution cannot be altered. This is called the basic structure doctrine in the constitutional law.

The papers presented were 1 Administration & Alienation of Temporal Goods; 2.Pious Dispositions and Pious Foundations; 3 Diocesan and Parish Finance Councils 4.Religious and the Administration of Temporal Goods; 5 Administration of Church

Finances in the context of Present Legislation and 6.Sexual abuse of Minors by Clergy and Religious.

The daily liturgy was celebrated in a meaningful way with Morning Prayer and Meditation. Special celebrants were Cardinal Oswald Gracias and Archbishop Antony Pappusamy. On 19th October the new service team was elected and Rev. Dr. John Mendonca was elected as President of the Canon Law Society of India. Rev. Dr. S. Antony Samy, Vice President, Rev. Dr., K.T. Emmanuel, Secretary, Rev. Dr. John Mohandas, continues as Treasurer, Rev. Dr. Varghese Koluthura and Rev. Dr. John Diraviam as executive members. On the 20th October, the new service team celebrated mass and prayed for the repose of the souls of the deceased members of the CSLI. On the previous day the questionbox session considered as a remarkable one to clarify doubts and to upgrade our canonical thinking regarding Temporal Goods, Religious, tribunal, liturgical and administrative issues are usually clarified by a panel of experts. Four Canonists participated from the Archdiocese of Pondicherry & Cuddalore and it is a refresher courses from time to time on an Annual basis covering relevant topics from Canon Law and the Magisterium of the Church. We sincerely thank the Archbishop and the Procurator for making the necessary arrangements and meeting the expenses.

3. The Launch of a Social Media Campaign “Dalits in Limbo”

‘Dalits in Limbo’ a social media campaign initiative was launched by Most Rev. Neethinathan, Bishop of Cheigleput and Chairperson, Catholic Bishops’ Conference of India (CBCI) Office for SC/BC on 20th October 2017 at 4.30 pm from Chingleput. Hundreds of people throughout the world watched it live in the Facebook account Dalit ChristianCbcI. The message in the Tweeter account called Dalits_In_Limbo was also retweeted by many. A YouTube channel and Blog were also launched with the name Dalits in Limbo. The launch program was joined by many of the Dalits and well-wishers and as well as by the Dalits in Diaspora, who are in different parts of the world.

- Dictionary meaning of Limbo: an uncertain period of awaiting a decision or resolution; an intermediate state or condition. The Dalit Christians are denied of their fundamental right to be included in the Scheduled Caste list. Thus neither they are in the SC list nor are they accepted by the caste people as their equals.

- There are some wrong opinions and unnecessary fear spread against including them in the SC list. The social media called ‘Dalits in Limbo’ will clarify many of these doubts. It will also explain to the public the right of Dalits Christians to be included in the SC list.
- The social media campaign is taken up by the young Dalit Christian E-Volunteers, Christians and members of the civil society organisations.

I kindly request all the Priests, Religious and people to have an account in Twitter and follow us in Twitter ID: Dalits in Limbo. Kindly “Like, share, and Retweet “in Facebook and Twitter.

Do you know the Kandhamal Massacre?

Barely after ten days of celebration of Independence, India witnessed the biggest communal violence against the Christians in Kandhamal in Odisha in 2008. This is ninth year of Kandhamal Anniversary of the anti-Christian violence. We observe Kandhamal Day on August 25th to bring about communal harmony, peace and women were subjected to rape, molestation and humiliation and several educational, social service and health institutions were destroyed and looted. More than 56,000 people have been displaced. Several cases of forced conversion to Hinduism by the Sangh Parivar have been reported. This organized communal attack which was the biggest in the history of Christian community during the last three centuries, also spread to different parts of Odisha and other states as well. The compensation provided by the Government for the victims and survivors of Kandhamal has been minimal. Our solidarity actions will be an inspiration for those who are struggling for justice. It would also be a strong step to protect
