ARCHBISHOP'S MESSAGE

The 3rd Synod of Pondicherry and Cuddalore- Grace-Filled Event

“God so loved the world that he gave his only son, so that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life” (Jn 3:16). “I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly” (Jn 10:10). “I am the way, and the truth, and the life” (Jn 14:6). God is life and the source of life. He sent his son into the world, so that all human persons may have life in his name.

The Third Synod of Pondicherry and Cuddalore was celebrated in Pondicherry from 27th to 30th October 2019, commemorating the 175th anniversary of the First Synod of Pondicherry, held in 1844. The theme chosen for our prayerful reflection was: Fullness of Life in Christ.

The church is the people of God. Hence, the participants for this synod were selected from various sections of the people of God. There were 66 priests, 65 women religious and 147 lay men and women. There had been serious preparations from the past three years. The topics and sub-topics were sent to the parishes, religious houses and educational institutions. The suggestions and proposals from the clergy, religious and laity were collected and were studied by the steering committee. The topics were finalized. The speakers were identified and they were asked to prepare their reflections, based on the teaching of the Church and on the proposals from the clergy, religious and the laity.

On Sunday, 27th October 2019 we had the Solemn Inauguration of the Synod by High Mass at the Immaculate Conception Cathedral at 5.30 p.m. Then we had a public function at the Cathedral campus in which political and civil leaders also took part. All the synod participants and a big number of other people took part both in the mass and in the public function.

On 28th and 29th October 2019, the Synodal sessions were held on the following topics:-

1. Parishes
2. Laity
3. Priest and Religious
4. Word of God- Sacraments
5. Evangelization
6. Church- Casteism
7. Social Services
8. Political Life
9. Educational Services
10. Educational Institutions

11. Financial, Temporal Administration
12. Archdiocesan Administration.

After the inputs by the speakers, there was a spontaneous, open and frank sharing by the participants. The moderators regulated well the proceedings. Order and punctuality were maintained.

On 30th October, the first session was devoted to the minutes of the Synodal sessions. The synod minutes committee members read out the minutes of the Synod and with a few corrections and additions, the minutes were approved by the Synodal assembly.

During the second session, the synodal drafting committee gave the Synodal proposals for the Archdiocesan Pastoral Plan. After some discussions, and clarifications the Synodal proposals were approved by the Synodal assembly. Then there was a solemn mass to thank and praise the Lord for his abundant blessings upon the Synodal assembly.

The celebration of the Third Synod of Pondicherry on the theme of “Fullness of life in Christ Jesus” was a deep spiritual experience for all the Synodal participants. Along with other preparations, there was an intensive spiritual preparation for this synod. The Synodal prayer was recited in all the parishes of our Archdiocese. Many were ardently praying for the success of this Synod.

On 27th October we began the Synodal celebration with a solemn mass invoking the special grace of the Holy Spirit. On 30th October we closed the Synod with a thanksgiving mass. We sang “Te Deum” praising and thanking God for all his blessings upon the Synod. On 28th and 29th October holy masses were celebrated before the Synodal sessions. We began and ended the sessions, with prayer. A special Blessed Sacrament Chapel was arranged and many participants prayed at the feet of the Eucharistic Lord, during the free time. Thus, we kept the Eucharist at the centre of our Synodal celebrations. During these days we could experience the maternal presence and guidance of Mary, our beloved mother.

All the participants were happy about this Synodal celebration. The Archbishop, the clergy, the religious and the laity, coming together, praying together, reflecting together about the life and mission of the Archdiocese of Pondicherry and Cuddalore in the present context of the world, was a great experience for all the participants.

We thank all the Synodal participants for their active participation in the Synodal proceedings. We thank Very Rev. Msgr. A. Arulanandam, VG, the Synodal Convener, Very Rev. Fr. A. J. Philomindoss, the Synodal Secretary, Very Rev. Fr. J.M. Gregory Louis Joseph, the Procurator, Rev. Fr. R. Pascal Raj, Principal, Petit Higher Sec. School and his staff for the great preparations and arrangements they had made for the Synod. We thank the Core group members, the Steering Committee members, the speakers, the moderators, the time-keeper, the choir, media team, the minutes committee, the drafting committee and all the other committees for their services and contributions.

I thank all who were actively involved in the preparations and celebration of the third Synod of Pondicherry and Cuddalore. Once the draft for the Archdiocesan Pastoral Plan is finalized, it will be promulgated.

May God the Father, the source of life, shower upon us the fullness of life through His Son Jesus Christ and His Holy Spirit.

2. Dalit Liberation Sunday

Sunday, 10th November is celebrated as Dalit Liberation Sunday. The theme is: “Liberating the oppressed is the reign of God”. On this day let us pray in a special way that our Dalit Christians brethren and our Dalit Muslim brethren be constitutionally granted scheduled caste status.

3. Most Rev. Dr. Antony Devotta (1943-2019)

Most Rev. Dr. Antony Devotta (1943- 2019) Bishop Emeritus of Trichy had gone to his eternal reward on 15.10.2019. As the Chairman of the CCBI Commission for Catechetics, as the Chairman of the TNLBC Commission for Catechetics, he had rendered an excellent service to the church in India for catechetical renewal. We pray for the repose of his soul.

Memorable Synod

Our Ancient Archdiocese, being faithful to Jesus Christ and His faithful had the Third Synod on 27, 28, 29, and 30th October 2019, the missionary month in Pondicherry. It was a full-fledged Synod in which the representatives of the Local Church was present and actively participated and celebrated the faith in the Risen Lord with the protection of Our Blessed Mother Mary the Patroness of our Archdiocese.

The Members have placed the proposals to our Archbishop Most. Rev. Dr. Antony Anandarayar for his consideration, consultation, discernment and conclusions with the senate and Council Members and thus pave the way to build the local church in keeping with the magisterium of the Universal Church.

It is a blessing and a grace for all of us to receive the faith and commitment to live and witness in the modern world especially India. Even if we are in small numbers, it does not matter let us be courageously powerful witness and humble servants today. This is what is expected of us all times. The risen lord is blessing all of us and we live in all humility continue to grow in the Lord and the People.

Let us love one another as Jesus guides us and pray one another as the Lord directs us.

Highlights & Report of the Canon Law Society of India (14-18, Oct.2019)

On 14-18, October, 2019, out of 140 registered 138 CLSI members from India and neighboring countries attended the 33nd

Annual Conference at JDV, P.G. Block, Ramwadi, Nagar Road, Pune- 411 014 (Jnana-Deepa-Vidyapeethi JDV). The Conference concentrated on the main theme on the “Involvement of Religious in the Local Church.” On the first day, at 4.00 pm., in the presence of Most Rev. Dr. Thomas Dabre, the Bishop of Pune and Mgr. Dr. Dominic Savio Fernandez, Auxiliary Bishop of Bombay inaugurated the XXXIII Annual Conference.

In his inaugural address the Bishop Thomas Dabre insisted on the important role of canon law in the governance of the local church. He appreciated the involvement and the role of the religious in the local church. They are expected to cooperate and collaborate with the mission of the local church. Advocate Mr. Joaquim Reis, Mumbai addressed on Article 25(1) “Freedom of Religion in the Constitution of India.” He explained about the draft of this article. The Preamble of the constitution itself safeguards this right. Allurement, fraud and force are to be prohibited in the Anti-conversion Bill, (Orissa, Madhya Pradesh, Arunchal Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, etc.)

On 15th Oct., Key note address: “Theological Basis and Canonical Implications of involvement of Religious in the Local Church” by Rev. Dr. Michael Fernandez, SDB. Clergy and laity are the two status and clergy, consecrated people and laity are the different categories in the church. Consecrated people are to be charismatic and prophetic. They depend upon the hierarchy for discernment and exercise of their charism and patrimony. The different forms of consecrated life like monks, virgins, hermits, widows, etc. and the consecrated life is to be of the church and for the church. They participate in the threefold mission of Christ, to teach, to sanctify and to govern. Consecrated life is a gift given by the Spirit. The IV talk was on “Exclaustation of Perpetually professed Religious: a Comparison of CIC and CCEO” by Rev. Dr. Rosmain Cheruvilparambil, SH. Rev. Dr. S. Antonisamy dealt on “Contracts between a Diocesan Bishop and a Major Superior – Practical Guidelines.” With regard to the care of souls, public exercise of divine worship and other works of apostolate, the religious are under the guidance and governance of the diocesan bishop. The contract must be made properly including the contents of it. Viz., purpose, manner of apostolate, written agreement, etc. After the supper at 8.45 pm Region wise Canonists Meetings discussed on the Questionnaire and the functions of the tribunals and reported on the next day.

On 16th October 2019, A presentation on the “Mitis Iudex Dominus Iesus – The Gentle Judge, Our Lord Jesus: Shorter process on the nullity of marriage” was conducted in detail by Rt. Rev. Dr. Dominic Savio Fernandez till afternoon. There was a short trip to St. Antony’s Shrine and had our tea and later supper was served in Christ the King Parish near JDV. The next day, Rev. Dr. Varghese Koluthara, CMI dealt on “Possible Future Changes in the CIC and CCEO.” John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis have already revised several canons in both codes. The future changes are still open. Rev. Dr. Chrian Thunduparampil, CMI explained on “Causes of Canonization – Practical Guidelines.” Two phases: Local phase (Diocesan/ Eparchial) and Roman phase (Study and Judgment) cf. The paper given: Procedure to be followed. The question box session considered as a remarkable one to clarify doubts and to upgrade our canonical thinking regarding Temporal Goods, Religious, tribunal, liturgical and administrative issues are usually clarified by a panel of experts. The same service team was re-elected; Rev. Dr. John

Mendonca was elected as President of the Canon Law Society of India. Rev. Dr. Varghese Koluthura, Vice President, Rev. Dr., K. T. Emmanuel, Secretary, Rev. Dr. John Mohandas, continues as Treasurer, Rev. Dr. S. Antony Samy and Rev. Dr. John Diraviam as executive members

The daily liturgy was celebrated in a meaningful way with Morning Prayer, Meditation and Rosary. Special celebrants were Bishop Thomas Dabre, Auxiliary bishop Dominic Savio Fernandez and service team. On 18th October, the new service team celebrated mass and prayed for the repose of the souls of the deceased members of the CSLI. Rev. Dr. T. Lourdusamy elaborated on the Apostolic Letter: "Communis Vita," published on March 19, 2019 and came into force on April 10, 2019. Canons 611, 665, 686,694, etc. and their modifications were some of them. There was an evaluation and fixing of the Venue, dates, topics and speakers were proposed for 34th CLSI Meeting 2020. (needs for confirmation of the Alphonsian Pastoral Institute, Palai, Kerala and 12-16, October 2020).

Four Canonists participated from the Archdiocese of Pondicherry & Cuddalore and it is a refresher course from time to time on, an Annual basis covering relevant topics from Canon Law and the Magisterium of the Church. We sincerely thank the Archbishop and the Procurator for making the necessary arrangements and meeting the expenses.

Youth Commission Report November -2019

1. National Youth Conference – Hyderabad

The 2nd National Youth Conference organised by Indian Catholic Youth Movement (ICYM), the official parochial youth movement of the CCBI National Youth Commission took place from 13 - 17 October, 2019 at CHAI Training Center in Medchal, Telangana. This was preceded by two days local cultural experience (Days in Diocese) wherein a few people opted to spend time with local families to experience their life and culture. The Archdiocese of Hyderabad hosted this conference, for 415 participants including young leaders, priests, religious and animators involved in youth ministry across the country. They represented fourteen regions and sixty-nine Latin rite dioceses across India, as well as invited delegates from various youth movements like YCS/YSM, Salesian Youth Movement and Jesus Youth. The theme for this conference was “I am the servant of the Lord. May it be done according to Your Word” with the focus on sharing Christus vivit with the participants in order that they may take it back to the grassroots (parishes and institutions) where they belong.

The inaugural mass was celebrated on 13th October by Most Rev. Thumma Bala, Archbishop of Hyderabad who welcomed the participants to the archdiocese and shared with young people on the importance of building a good character and personality. Rev. Fr. Chetan Machado (National Youth Director), Mr. Percival Holt (National Youth President), National Executive Committee, regional youth directors, diocesan youth directors, animators, representatives from other youth movements, invitees, media representatives and others were present. Mr. Sahi and Col. Sean Rodrigues were the guest of honour for the evening. Mr. Percival welcomed everyone and shared the vision of the conference. Mr. Kevin Nicolas, the Diocesan Youth President of Hyderabad proposed the vote of thanks at the end of the beautiful cultural evening that depicted the culture and youthfulness of Hyderabad.

On the second day, Fr. Mathew Abraham (Director of CHAI) delivered the keynote address; he elaborated the theme and shared about God’s mysterious call and the importance of young people to say “yes”, by giving his own testimony.

The conference comprised of mainly group discussions and various workshops, together with moments of prayer, animation and cultural depictions by all regions every day. In the groups, delegates discussed on the recent exhortation of Pope Francis- “Christus Vivit” a post Synodal document to the church especially the young people, which brought out their voices, concerns and thoughts as well as the opportunity to deliberate from the perspective of the Synod. Appointed moderators helped carry out the discussions in fifteen groups.

Twelve choice based workshops were also held every day on various topics of importance to young people like ‘Relationship with elders and family life’, ‘Feelings, body and sexuality’, ‘Christian ethics and beliefs’, ‘Our care for our home: Earth’, ‘Career and vocation’, ‘Media mania’, ‘Politics, leadership and constitutional rights’ etc. Specialized resource persons conducted these workshops. The participants were free to choose different workshops on each day.

Most. Rev. Anil J T Couto (Archbishop of Delhi), Most. Rev. Poola Anthony (Bishop of Kurnool) and Rev. Fr. Stephen Alathara (Deputy Secretary of CCBI) celebrated the Eucharist and interacted with the young people on different days.

Each region was given responsibilities such as liturgy, choir, daily prayer, animation, cultural program etc. Rosary, adoration and Taize prayer conducted by Taize Brothers from France was organised on different evenings.

The concluding programme was held on 17th October 2019. Most Rev. Jayarao Polimera (Bishop of Eluru and Chairman of Telugu Regional Youth Commission) celebrated the thanksgiving Eucharist. With all his vigor and enthusiasm, he motivated young people to be bold, courageous, energetic and excited about the gift of life.

During the concluding ceremony, ICYM also conferred 11 young people from different parts of the country with the “National Young Achievers Award” an award for those young people who have scaled great heights in the field of academics, career, skills, talents and public leadership. These young people have contributed to various sectors of the society such as government, sports, music, social work, medicine, etc. Mrs. ArunaBahuguna IPS was the guest of honor for the day.

Rev. Fr. Chetan Machado thanked everyone for making the programme a success by playing their respective roles and contributions, especially to the host archdiocesan Youth Director Rev. Fr. Richard John under whose guidance a lot of effort and hard work was put together and the Regional Youth Director Rev. Fr. Praveen Sagili for the support and help rendered. He also thanked the various supporters, benefactors and staff of CHAI for their hospitality.

There were visible signs of God’s work in all the conference days as prayers worked miracles and so the conference was saved from rain throughout the 5 days in spite of weather forecast. The National Youth Conference 2019 gave a wonderful platform to young people to learn more about their faith and they returned with a lot of enthusiasm to bring a positive change in them and the society.
