ARCHBISHOP'S MESSAGE

Fratelli Tutti:

St. Francis of Assisi is known for his life of simplicity, poverty and humility. He had a great love for God and for all human persons. He was close to God and close to the human family. He had respect for God's creations.

Pope Francis, inspired by his patron saint, St. Francis of Assisi, has published his Encyclical Letter, entitled Fratelli Tutti on 3rd October 2020. This letter is addressed to all men and women, to all the brothers and sisters, to all the human person on earth. This letter aims at building up brotherhood and fellowship and at promoting fraternity and friendship among all the members of the human family.

We have bought 200 copies of this precious encyclical letter. All our Archdiocesan priests will be given a copy each. This book is very inspiring and very useful. A reflective and prayerful reading of this book is very much recommended.

1) From the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the the Sacraments, we have received a directive, dated 13th May 2020, about the prayer we usually say at the end of the Collect at our Masses in English: "Through our Lord Jesus Christ...One God for ever and ever". The word 'One' at the end of the conclusion in our English translation could give rise to theological ambiguity. Hence, we are asked to drop the word 'One' at the end of the prayers. This directive is to be followed by all who use the English version of the Roman Missal.

In this news letter (on page 326) is given the Directive of the above mentioned Congregation.

2) Plenary Indulgences:

On 23-10-2020 the Apostolic Penitentiary has published a Decree on Plenary Indulgences for the deceased in the current pandemic. This Decree is given in this news letter on page 328.

3) Divine Liturgy:

We have gradually resumed the celebration of the Eucharistic liturgy and other Sacraments on Sundays and on week days. We should always keep in mind the local conditions and strictly follow the directives of the local civil authorities concerning the safety of the people, such as using sanitizer, wearing face mask and keeping social distance. During this pandemic family prayer and the reading of the Word of God are to be greatly encouraged.

4) Council of Cardinals:

We are very happy to know that His Holiness Pope Francis has re-nominated His Eminence Oswald Cardinal Gracias, Archbishop of Bombay, a member of the Council of Cardinals. He has been also re-nominated to the Pontifical Council for Legislative Texts. We offer our hearty felicitations to His Eminence Oswald Cardinal Gracias and wish him success in his great responsibilities.

7) Rev. Fr. A.J.C. Lawrence: 1948 – 2020:

“Come, follow me” (Mt 4.19). Rev. Fr. A.J.C. Lawrence closely followed Jesus, 72 years as a Christian and 44 years as a priest. He spent about 30 years in the formation and education of the youth. He is a great educationist. He was also a great pastor of souls. He was a man of principles. He is known for his sense of discipline and hard work. On 12th October he went to his eternal reward. We thank God for the precious gift of Fr. A.J.C. Lawrence to our Archdiocese and pray for the repose of his soul.

8) Rev. Fr. M. Jayaseelan: 1976 – 2020:

On 26th October 2020, he went to his eternal reward, at a relatively young age of 44. He is known for his life of simplicity and hard work. He was available to go to any place for ministry and service. Towards, the end of his life, he courageously accepted the God-given sufferings in his body. We thank God for the precious gift of Fr. M. Jayaseelan to our Archdiocese and pray for the repose of his soul.

Directive of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments is given below:

CONGREGATIO DE CULTU DIVINO
ET DISCIPLINA SACRAMENTORUM
Prot. N. 228/20

Vatican City, 13 May 2020

Your Excellency,

The Congregation recently received the latest raft of Gray and Green books issued to the Episcopal Conferences by the International Commission on English in the Liturgy. It is satisfying to note the breadth and quality of work which the Commission continues to accomplish on behalf of the member conferences. The members of the Commission, the staff there and all those who collaborate in the important work of translation are to be thanked.

Upon studying the texts which we have received there is, we feel, one matter which should now be addressed with the Episcopal Conferences which previously the Congregation had raised informally with ICEL. Therefore I am writing to the Presidents of each member conference of the Commission. The matter in question concerns the Trinitarian conclusion of the Collect prayers. These prayers can be concluded in one of three manners as laid out in n.54 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal. Currently, in each of these formulas the Latin words “Deus, per omnia saecula saeculorum” are rendered in English as “one God, for ever and ever”.

For some time now the Congregation has been of the view that the addition of “one” is mistaken and problematic. On the one hand, it can serve to undermine the statement of the Son’s unique identity within the Trinity which the Latin formulas so strongly convey and, on the other hand, it can also be interpreted as saying that Jesus Christ is “one God”. Either or both of these interpretations is injurious to the faith of the Church. This is of particular import in this time when many people see Jesus simply as a good man or moral teacher, akin to Socrates or the Buddha, but they fail to recognise him as the incarnate Son of God and Second Person of the Trinity.

It is clear from the Latin texts that the doxology emphasises the divinity of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Son, who intercedes on our behalf, as the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, to the Father and which prayer is made in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Thus the Son’s role of priestly mediation is made clear. To transfer the Trinitarian relational element in unitate as meaning unus Deus is incorrect. It is no accident, as evidence shows, that this doxological phrase was coined in Africa as a means to combat the Arian heresy. Then, as Ordo Romanus V shows, the addition of Deus as follows “Per Dominum nostrum Iesum Christum Filium tuum. Qui tecum vivit et regnat Deus ...”, further serves to underline the Son’s divinity.

Indeed, in this instance, the English translation of these conclusions is an outlier which is not mirrored in any of the other main language translations. French and German simply use Dieu and Gott respectively; Italian uses che e Dio, Egli e Dio and Tu sei Dio; Spanish uses yes Dios and eres Dios, while Portuguese uses que e Deus and Vas que sois Deus.

Matters become even more troubling when we consider that the English translation of the Missal is often used as a guide for other, less diffuse languages around the world which obviously runs the risk of an unauthentic interpretation of the lex orandi being repeated. Where this has previously come to our notice, we have corrected the translation. You will no doubt have noted that in the English versions of the texts for the Mass in Time of Pandemic provided by this Dicastery the word “one” has been dropped. This was not an oversight.

Because in our view the addition of the word “one” corrupts the lex orandi and therefore the lex credendi we rule that it should no longer be used in the translation of these texts into English. It will be for Episcopal Conferences, through ICEL, to decide how best to translate these formulas in order to safeguard both their Trinitarian shape as well as their profession of the Son's divinity. You may wish to adopt the French and German approach or to opt for something closer to the Italian, Spanish and Portuguese model.

We are aware that this ruling has implications for the Collects as they are found in the current translation of The Roman Missal, but perhaps now, given the ongoing work of preparing a new translation of The Liturgy of the Hours, would be an opportune moment to revise the translation of n. 54 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal to reflect this more mature understanding of what these formulas actually say and wish to convey.

With every good wish and kind regard, I am,

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Robert Cardinal SARAH

Decree on Plenary Indulgences given by the Apostolic Penitentiary

Decree of the Apostolic Penitentiary on Plenary Indulgences for the deceased faithful in the current pandemic, 23.10.2020

DECREE

This year, in the current circumstances due to the “Covid-19” pandemic, the Plenary Indulgences for the deceased faithful will be extended throughout the entire month of November, with adaptation of works and conditions to guarantee the safety of the faithful.

This Apostolic Penitentiary has received many petitions from holy Pastors who have asked that this year, due to the “Covid-19” epidemic, pious works be commuted in order to obtain the Plenary Indulgences applicable to souls in Purgatory, in accordance with the Manual of Indulgences (conc. 29, § 1). For this reason, the Apostolic Penitentiary, on the special mandate of His Holiness Pope Francis, willingly establishes and decides that this year, in order to avoid gatherings where they are forbidden:

a.- the Plenary Indulgence for those who visit a cemetery and pray for the deceased, even if only mentally, normally established only on the individual days from 1 to 8 November, may be transferred to other days of the same month, until its end. These days, freely chosen by the individual believers, may also be separate from each other;

b.- the Plenary Indulgence of 2 November, established on the occasion of the Commemoration of all the deceased faithful for those who piously visit a church or oratory and recite the “Our Father” and the “Creed” there, may be transferred not only to the Sunday before or after or on the day of the Solemnity of All Saints, but also to another day of the month of November, freely chosen by the individual faithful.

The elderly, the sick and all those who for serious reasons cannot leave their homes, for example because of restrictions imposed by the competent authority in this time of the pandemic, in order to prevent numerous faithful from crowding into the holy places, will be able to obtain the Plenary Indulgence as long as they join spiritually with all the other faithful, completely detached from sin and with the intention of complying as soon as possible with the three usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer according to the Holy Father's intentions), before an image of Jesus or the Blessed Virgin Mary, recite pious prayers for the deceased, for example, Lauds and Vespers of the Office of the Dead, the Marian Rosary, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, other prayers for the deceased dearest to the faithful, or occupy themselves in considered reading of one of the Gospel passages proposed by the liturgy of the deceased, or perform a work of mercy by offering to God the sorrows and hardships of their own lives.

For an easier attainment of divine grace through pastoral charity, this Penitentiary earnestly prays that all priests with the appropriate faculties offer themselves with particular generosity to the celebration of the Sacrament of Penance and administer Holy Communion to the sick.

However, as far as the spiritual conditions for fully achieving the Indulgence are concerned, it is worth recalling the indications already issued in the “Note on the Sacrament of Reconciliation in the current pandemic” issued by the Apostolic Penitentiary on 19 March 2020.

Finally, since the souls in Purgatory are assisted by the prayers of the faithful and especially by the sacrifice of the Altar to God (cf. Conc. Tr. Sess. XXV, decr. De Purgatorio), all priests are strongly invited to celebrate Holy Mass three times on the day of the Commemoration of all the deceased faithful, in accordance with the Apostolic Constitution “Incruentum Altaris”, issued by Pope Benedict XV, of venerable memory, on 10 August 1915.

This Decree is valid throughout the entire month of November, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary.

Given in Rome, from the seat of the Apostolic Penitentiary, on 22 October 2020, memorial of Saint John Paul II.

Be stress-free, Be Happy, Choose a life of movement

The Africans are happy despite their poverty. What makes them happy? Their happiness is not corresponding to economic growth. What makes us unhappy? Why are we stressful? Our expectations. Our imaginations. Our technologies. Our relationships. Our past and present realities. Our increasing wants and desires. Our greed. Our cut-throat competitions. We expect our children also to fall in the line. We encourage our kids to have unrealistic goals. Let us not lure our children. Let us not ruin our children. How long we could live a life of expectations and disappointments? Don't we destroy our own life as well as the life of our future generations? We are, no doubt, in trouble. We invite trouble. Our modern way of life is neither modern nor traditional but troublesome. We are in peril. The red signal, red alert has already been given.

We get into some sort of mental illness. We all go through a sort of mental turmoil. Everyone has at least 300 mental health problems. Modern humans suffer more from psychological problems than physical ones.

All that is needed is satisfaction and contentment. But what we get is depression and anxiety. As many experts point out, stress is the starting point. Our thinking leads to stress. The WHO (World Health Organization) warns us that stress is a global health epidemic.

Let us return to the basics. Biology leads to psychology. Physical movement is the response. Let us keep in mind that a sound mind is achievable only with a sound body. Vigorous mind is born out of vigorous physical and mental exercises. Walking is fast yoga. Movement makes your mind still. You need endorphins. You need health for your body and happiness for your mind. Health and happiness makes us precious. Therefore walk. Therefore swim. Therefore run. Therefore kick. Therefore rise. Find joy in what you do.

Children are our mentors. They teach us how to be always moving. We, the elders, end up watching movies. Children start with moving and end with moving. They never get tired. Their happiness lies in mobility. Movement is the sign that we exist. Immobility is death. When everything becomes mobile, it is strange; we become immobile, inactive, and irrational. We need a movement for movement. What is stagnant is polluted. We are movers not polluters. You are a part of movement. Choose a life of movement. Our life is a life of movement. The more we move the more we live. The less we move the less we live. Choose the BEST!

Be Inspired to Inspire Others

The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho is one of the best-selling books in history, with over 65 million copies in 56 different languages. The story of Santiago, the shepherd boy on a journey to realize his “Personal Legend” has inspired people all over the world to live their dreams.

Here are ten of the most popular passages and lessons to apply to your life:

1. Fear is a bigger obstacle than the obstacle itself

“Tell your heart that the fear of suffering is worse than the suffering itself. And that no heart has ever suffered when it goes in search of its dreams, because every second of the search is a second’s encounter with God and with eternity.”

2. What is “true” will always endure

“If what one finds is made of pure matter, it will never spoil. And one can always come back. If what you had found was only a moment of light, like the explosion of a star, you would find nothing on your return.”

When you’re searching for the “right” decision, it will be the one that withstands the tests of time and the weight of scrutiny.

3. Break the monotony

“When each is the same as the next, it’s because people fail to recognize the good things that happen in their lives every day that the sun rises.”

4. Embrace the present

“Because I don’t live in either my past or my future. I’m interested only in the present. If you can concentrate always on the present, you’ll be a happy man.”

5. Your success has a ripple-effect

“That’s what alchemists do. They show that, when we strive to become better than we are, everything around us becomes better, too.”

Growth, change, and evolution are weaved into the fabric of reality. Becoming a better version of yourself creates a ripple effect that benefits everything around you: your lifestyle, your family, your friends, your community.

6. Make the decision

“When someone makes a decision, he is really diving into a strong current that will carry him to places he has never dreamed of when he first made the decision.”

7. Be unrealistic

“I see the world in terms of what I would like to see happen, not what actually does.”

Great achievements and innovations begin with a mindset that ignores the impossible.

8. Keep getting back up

“The secret of life, though, is to fall seven times and to get up eight times.”

9. Focus on your own journey

“If someone isn’t what others want them to be, the others become angry. Everyone seems to have a clear idea of how other people should lead their lives, but none about his or her own.”

10. Always take action

“There is only one way to learn. It’s through action.”

You can study, read, and listen until you turn blue in the face, but the full experience is when you take action, and let the rubber meet road, Once you’re done aiming, pull the trigger. Be Inspired to Inspire Others. (Courtesy : Rev. Dr. S. Philip Sudhakar, The Commission for the Unorganised Workers and Environment, Newsletter, Diocese of Dindigul, Vol.17, October 2020, No.10, pp24-27).

For your kind information:

Dear respected parish priests,

May I remind you again and again. ‘Corona restricted area’ tape is already fixed in Archbishop’s House Entrance gate by the Government authorities. Health department has warned the citizens to be more careful since the virus rate increases high during the cold and rainy season next two months. Death roll without symptoms of corona virus goes up in Pondicherry. Kindly do not send the people to the tribunal office however urgent it is. Hearing and enquiries are impossible through phone contacts, due to defect in technology system. You may send them when everything takes shape in running the normalcy, informing me ahead with your valuable letter as the parish priest.

During the month of November, May all departed souls of our families, clerics and religious, dear and near ones and all those have died of Covid-19 Virus in the world be remembered and gain the plenary indulgences specially on the graceful year of God’s reign, by praying, doing charitable deeds and staying at home, visualizing the cemeteries, shrines and Basilicas. Conference of the Diocesan Priests of India (CDPI)

We had the meeting of National Executive Committee of CDPI through zoom conference on the 8th of October and planned for our Annual National Council Meeting of CDPI. Tentatively we have decided to have the meeting at Gowhati in the month of February if the pandemic situation becomes normal. And if not, we are planning to have a National Level virtual meeting, if necessary. The finalization of the date, place, central theme and the topics will be decided in the month of November, once again through zoom conference of the National Executive Committee of CDPI. Divorce என்பது இப்போதெல்லாம் சாதாரண வார்த்தைகளாக மாறிவிட்டது, திருமணத்தின் போது கொடுக்கின்ற பிரமாணிக்க வாக்குறுதி மறைந்துவிட்டது, திருமணத்தின் மதிப்பீடுகள் மதிக்கப்படவேண்டும், அப்போதுதான் குடும்பங்களை மீட்டு

கொடுக்கப்பட வேண்டும். இந்த கொரோனாவால் பணத்தை இழந்து இருக்கலாம் ஆனால் குடும்பத்தின் மேன்மையை இழக்காமல் இருக்கும் போது இந்த பணத்தை மீட்டு எடுக்க முடியும் என்று கூறினார்.
